

ADJUSTABLE BENCH

The Adjustable Bench from Dynamic Fitness & Strength – your gateway to a personalized and effective workout experience. Our bench is designed with your fitness goals in mind, featuring a spacious 10" wide pad with adjustable angles from 0° to 85°. With laser-cut adjustment numbers and a single lever for seamless adjustments, you can easily tailor your exercises. The rolling base and protective rubber feet ensure mobility and stability, making it perfect for any home or gym. And, with custom color pad and printed slip cover options, it's not just a bench; it's an expression of your style. Our intensive multi-stage pretreatment process guarantees a long-lasting powder-coat finish, so you can trust in the durability and quality of your Dynamic Fitness & Strength Adjustable Bench. Elevate your workouts with the bench that adapts to you.
